Course on Islamic Banking Products: Shariah & Operational Aspects

Second training course jointly organized by the MMA and Islamic Research and Training Institute (IRTI) of the Jeddah-based Islamic Development Bank (IDB) on Islamic Banking Products: Shariah & Operational Aspects has concluded this evening. The four-day event held at MMA Training Institute, was being lectured by IRTI specialists, Dr. Mohammed Saleh Ayyash and Dr. Abdulazeem Abo Zaid. Representatives of the financial sector participated in the course.

IRTI is an affiliate of the Islamic Development Bank Group responsible for leading the development and sustenance of a dynamic and comprehensive Islamic Financial Services Industry that supports socio-economic development in member countries.

The main objectives of the course were to familiarize the participants with the Islamic banking products and provide a profound understanding of Shariah rules and operational aspects of the Islamic products.

The event was part of a package of technical assistance to the Maldives by the IDB in response to a request by the MMA. First such training program was on Principles of Islamic Banking which was held last December 2011.
